

provement Co. to Ida M. Markey, and ask that it be marked Plaintiff's Deed Exhibit No. 3; and deed from Ezra P. Willard and Edna P. Willard, his wife, to Ida M. Markey, and ask that it be marked Plaintiff's Deed Exhibit No. 4; and mortgage from Ida M. Markey to the Home Owners Loan Corporation and ask that it be marked Plaintiff's Mortgage Exhibit No. 5; and mortgage from Ida M. Markey to the Domestic Building and Loan Association and ask that it be marked Plaintiff's Mortgage Exhibit No. 6; and two certified copies of a judgment, No. 67 Trials, May Term, 1938, entitled Commercial Bank of Frederick, Maryland, now known as Commercial Bank of Maryland, a body corporate, entered to the use of Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation vs. D. John Markey, Mary Elizabeth Markey, D. John Markey, Jr., heirs and terre tenants of Edna M. Markey, deceased, and D. John Markey and Ida M. Markey and Ida M. Markey, in the principal sum of $6600, with interest from October 4, 1934, with 10% attorneys fees, $12.00 costs, and ask that they be marked Plaintiff's Judgment Exhibits No. 7. I will show you Plaintiff's Judgment Exhibits No. 7 and ask you if they are copies of the judgment which you mentioned.

A Yes.

Q Has anything been paid to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation or to its assignor on this judgment?

A The unpaid principal balance due on that judgment is $6,625.25. Accrued interest at 6% to June 25, 1941, is $950.72, or a total of $7,575.97.

Q As of today? A. As of today.

Q Today is June 25, 1941? A. That's right. Plus 10% attorney's fee.

Q Did you ever discuss the indebtedness due the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation from Mrs. Markey's estate with any of her heirs or parties named executors of her will?

A I have with Mrs. Elinor M. Hughes and Gen. D. John Markey.

Q What did they say with reference to the payment of this